

Sarojini Naidu Centre for Women's Studies, JMI

Cordially invites you for a Documentary show titled-

"1984, When the Sun Didn't Rise"

Directed

BY

Teena Kaur Pasricha

The film captures harrowing experiences of women who survived the attack on the Sikh community in New Delhi, after the assassination of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in 1984. By focusing on feminine experiences, this film has managed to give space to the most exploited and least heard voices, of the brave women who lost their husbands and sons in the tumult.

On 31st August, 2017, 3 PM

@

Committee Room of Centre for Jawaharlal Nehru Studies,

Noam Chomsky Complex

Discussion will be initiated by the Director of the film and anchored by the Director, SNCWS

All Students and Faculty members are invited