THE ANATOMY OF A RESEARCH

Akhil P. Veetil

Akhil P. Veetil is a joint PhD candidate in the Department of South Asia Studies and the Comparative Literature Program at the University of Pennsylvania. His dissertation looks at the role of the Hindi intelligentsia in the Angrezi Hatao (Banish English) movement in early postcolonial India.

The talk will provide an outline of his proposal and build upon the existing literature on the evolution of the Hindi public sphere, a brief case study of Tamil and Telugu, and affect studies.
