

Panelist on the panel on the North-East India the symposium “India: A Million Mutinies” organized by the Department of Political Science, on 1st February, 2012.

Ajit Doval, Former Director, Intelligence Bureau.

A UGC sponsored one-day symposium, with the theme “India: A Million Mutinies,” The symposium was divided into three sessions with different themes. The first session was based on the sub-theme “Naxal Movement: The war within” on February 1, 2012.

Prof. Anuradha Chenoy: Professor of Russian Studies, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi.

Panelist on the panel on Naxal issue at the symposium “India: A Million Mutinies” organized by the Department of Political Science, on 1st February, 2012.

E.N.Rammohan:, Former Director General, BSF.

Panelist on the panel on Naxal issue at the symposium “India: A Million Mutinies” organized by the Department of Political Science, on 1st February,2012.

Prof.Nandini Sundar, Department of Sociology, Delhi University

Panelist on the panel on Kashmir issue at the symposium “India: A Million Mutinies” organized by the Department of Political Science, on 1st February, 2012.

Wajahat Habibullah, Chairman, National Commission for Minorities

Panelist on the panel on Kashmir issue at the symposium “India: A Million Mutinies” organized by the Department of Political Science, on 1st February, 2012.

Suhasini Haidar: Foreign Affairs Editor, CNN-IBN

Panelist on the panel on Naxal issue at the symposium “India: A Million Mutinies” organized by the Department of Political Science, on 1st February, 2012.

Sumanta Banerjee, Independent Scholar