

Orientation Programme 2019

Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia organised an Orientation Programme for the students of M.A. (Economics) III Semester on 22nd July, 2019 at 10.30 AM in Model Classroom- II of the Department. All the faculty members and students of the Department attended the insightful programme.

The programme commenced with the welcome address by Dr. Bathula Srinivasu, Coordinator, M.A. Programme which was followed by an insightful talk by Prof. Halima Sadia Rizvi, Head of the Department of Economics. While addressing the students, she laid a great emphasis on the importance of discipline and punctuality. Also, Dr. Rizvi reiterated firmly about certain issues such as 75% compulsory attendance, University policy of zero tolerance towards ragging and the significance of gender sensitisation. Dr. Rizvi informed the students that the year 2019 marks University Centenary year and the students are expected to participate more actively in all the academic and cultural activities. Further, Dr. Rizvi notified the students about the optional papers that are to be chosen by them. Prof. Shahid Ahmad motivated the students to actively explore the field of research as a future career prospect. Dr. Ashref Illiyan lauded the excellent performances of the students from last year batch in UGC NET exam. 25 students qualified for the NET exam and 3 students qualified for JRF. This highlights the great achievements of the Department. Also, the students suggested to organise more paper presentation seminars and symposiums in the upcoming session. Finally, the programme was concluded with the hope that the students will follow and carry on the trend of the Department and reach greater heights of success.

