Jamia Millia Islamia

Jamia Millia Islamia was established in 1920 by a group of nationalist Muslim intelligentsia at Aligarh (Uttar Pradesh). Its campus shifted from Aligarh to Delhi in 1925 and the foundation stone of the present campus was laid on 1 March 1930. Since then, the university has been expanding and has become a premier educational institution of the country. Recognising its contributions in the field of teaching, research and extension work, the University Grants Commission (UGC) bestowed the “deemed university” status to it in 1962, and it was designated a Central University in 1988. Jamia Millia Islamia was declared a minority educational institution by the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions on 22 February 2011.

Jamia Millia Islamia has set into motion a climate of academic resilience and a congenial atmosphere for the students and faculty to promote studies in an array of disciplines from Humanities & Languages, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts, Law, Education, Mass Communication, Nano-technology, Engineering & Technology, Architecture, Physiotherapy and Dentistry and courses ranging from Nursery to Ph.D.

The University has come a long way in its march to carve a distinct niche in the academic world as centre of higher learning without compromising or altering its foundational values of nationalism, secularism and democracy and its commitment to composite Indian culture.
